

How does in vitro fertilization with donor eggs work?

This is how it works if we use fresh eggs from the donor. If we use frozen, there is no need to synchronize the cycle of the donor and the recipient. Regardless if we use fresh or frozen eggs, there is the possibility to freeze all embryos on day 5 and organise the endometrial preparation whenever better suits patients.